

Kent vs Essex – 27/01/2019

The fourth game of the season saw Kent hosting Essex at home. Up first for the U18s was debutant Connor Watkins (18.11) who played a good game winning 3-0 and claiming the first point for Kent. Liam Lawrence (14.28) was up next losing out 3-2. Up third was Tyler Simmonds (15.99) winning 3-0, followed by Lewis Bennett (19.03) who also had a 3-0 win. Louis Watson (18.38) was up fifth losing out 3-2 to Essex Man of the Match. Kyle Coles-Walsh (13.44) was up sixth losing out 3-0. Up last for the under 18s was Reece Pauling (27.18) who played an excellent game hitting 2x 180s and a 15 dart leg won 3-1 claiming the fourth point for Kent and the Man of the Match award. Kent 4 Essex 3.

Debutant Tiffany Adby (11.55) was up first for the U21 Ladies winning 3-2. Chelsea Coles-Walsh (13.56) was up next winning 3-1 and claiming the Lady of the Match award. Steph Adby (11.39) was up last and lost out 3-0. Kent 2 Essex 1.

Paul Reid (23.48) was up first for the U21s winning 3-0 and claiming the Man of the Match award. Up next was Chris Holt (20.72) who lost out 3-1 to Essex Man of the Match. Francis Eden (17.01) was up third winning 3-2. Up fourth was Craig Reeves (21.89) who played a good game with checks of 100 and 108 but unfortunately losing out 3-2. Up last was Luke Adby (20.79) who lost out 3-1. Kent 2 Essex 3.

An overall result of Kent 8 Essex 7.