

London vs Kent – 06/10/2019

For the first game of the season Kent travelled to London. Unfortunately, Kent were already 1-0 down due to not having enough U18s for the first game.

Up first for the U18s was debutant Adam Connelly (19.82) who played a good game winning 3-1, claiming the man of the match award and giving Kent their first point. Reece Pauling (17.28) claimed a second point for Kent winning 3-0. Up third was Tyler Simmonds (14.57) who was unlucky losing 3-0 to London's Man of the Match. Up next was Connor Watkins (19.27) who played a good game winning 3-0. Up fifth was debutant Luca Scott (16.52) who won 3-0. Up sixth was debutant Callum Cross (10.47) who won 3-1 and claimed a fifth point for Kent. London 2 Kent 5.

Debutant Lena Norman (10.22) was up first for the girls winning 3-0 and claiming the Lady of the match award. Up second was debutant Chelcei Colville (8.50) who unfortunately lost 3-0. Up last for the girls was debutant Charley Bristow (10.60) who also unfortunately lost out 3-1 to London's Lady of the Match. London 2 Kent 1.

Up first for the U21s was Billy Bristow (19.53) who played a good game but unfortunately lost out to London's Man of the Match. Up next was debutant Lewis Crumbie (14.92) who won 3-1. Brad Debona (14.64) was up third winning 3-2 and a hitting a 180. Up fourth was Louis Whitehouse (22.77) who played a brilliant game winning 3-0 and claiming the Man of the Match award. Debutant Callum Colville (16.83) was up last for the final game of the day winning 3-1. London 1 Kent 4.

An overall result of London 5 Kent 10.
